ADDENDUM TO CASE#
04-10021 JLT

I served papers for Philip W. Johnston at his Boston office at 99 Summer St. on January 28, 2004 at 2:45 pm. It was received by his secretary Megha with whom I have spoken to many times whenever I have had to call his office during the primary election.

On January 26 or 27th I received a phone call personally from Philip Johnston Chairman of the Democrat Party. He refused to give me any information. He said, if you want information you will have to dig for it. So I did as he advised me to do and I started digging. I called on the Statehouse Library and secured the address of his Boston Office and the rest was History. I would like to add that I did receive a written receipt on Philip Johnston letterhead stating that Secretary Megha did receive those papers.

Respectfully Submitted
